Citrus Pest & Disease Prevention Program

The Citrus Pest & Disease Prevention Program is offering free training workshops conducted in Spanish and designed to teach front line crews how to mitigate spreading Asian citrus psyllids in the field. Trainings in Nipomo and Santa Paula are taking place next week. The Department of Pesticide Regulation has approved two hours of continuing education units for this workshop. More details, including registration information, is in the Citrus Insider email below

Nipomo
March 27 @ 7 a.m. – 9 a.m.
Mihlschau Ranch Barn
470 Mihlschau Road
Nipomo, CA 93444

To register, call 559-592-3790 or visit https://citrusinsider.org/event/nipomo-train-the-trainer-best-practices-for-citrus-field-crews-to-prevent-the-spread-of-acp-hlb/.

Santa Paula
March 28 @ 7 a.m. – 9 a.m.
Limoneira Visitor Center
1141 Cummings Road
Santa Paula, CA 93060

To register, call 559-592-3790 or visit https://citrusinsider.org/event/santa-paula-train-the-trainer-best-practices-for-citrus-field-crews-to-prevent-the-spread-of-acp-hlb/.