We can help by:

- Serving as liaisons for farmworkers, employers, and other representatives in the agricultural community
- Providing information on resources available through state, county, and local agencies
- Facilitating resolutions; reviewing federal, state and county labor laws, regulations, and policies to assist farmworkers and employers in reaching collaborative solutions related to workplace conditions
- Developing, administering, and evaluating educational and marketing tools regarding the various programs and laws that serve as resources for the agricultural community
