This advisory is to notify interested parties that the California Department of Food and Agriculture (CDFA) has launched a new webpage regarding the National Ornamental Research Site at Dominican University (NORS-DUC) and CDFA Best Management Practices Program.

On the webpage you will find a summary of the program as well as program documents, including the BMP Manual, what to expect if a nursery wants to join the program and pertinent links that are useful to achieving cleaner nursery stock.

Please direct any nurseries interested in joining the program or nurseries interested in learning more about a systems approach to clean nursery stock production to the webpage.

The new webpage can be accessed from the Nursery Services Webpage at:
